

Curriculum Vitae

name: Ambassador Martin VUKOVICH

born: 20 October 1944 in Eisenstadt (Austria) education: Baccalauréat, Lycée Français de Vienne (1962) Doctorate of Law, University of Vienna (1967) foreign languages: English, French, Russian present position: Director for International Security Policy and concurrently Deputy Political Director, Ministry for Foreign Affairs

1969 Entry into the Austrian Foreign Service

1971-1976 Embassy in Moscow, Press and Political Officer

1976-1978 Embassy in Copenhagen, First Secretary

1978-1982 Ministry for Foreign Affairs, Deputy Head of the Department for European Economic Integration

1982-1985 Embassy in Washington, Minister Counsellor

1985-1989 Embassy in Moscow, Minister Plenipotentiary, Deputy Chief of Mission

1989-1995 Ministry for Foreign Affairs, Head of the Department for the Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe (CSCE) and simultaneously Permanent Representative of Austria to the CSCE with the title of Ambassador

1995-1999 Ambassador to Japan since November 1999 Ministry for Foreign Affairs, Director for International Security Affairs and concurrently Deputy Political Director.

since December 2001 Member of the National Security Council